

Patient Email Consent Form

Reiter Hill Johnson & Nevin offers patients the opportunity to communicate by email for non-urgent matters. This form provides information about the risks of email and guidelines for email communication.

RISKS

Communication by e-mail has a number of risks which include, but are not limited to, the following:

- E-mail can be circulated, forwarded and stored in paper and electronic files.
- Backup copies of e-mail may exist even after the sender or the recipient has deleted his/her copy.
- E-mail can be received by unintended recipients.
- E-mail can be intercepted, altered, forwarded or used without authorization or detection.
- E-mail can be used to introduce viruses into computer systems.

You should not communicate with Reiter Hill Johnson & Nevin via email if any of the above risks concern you.

GUIDELINES FOR EMAIL COMMUNICATION

- Include the general topic of your message in the subject line of the e-mail (e.g. appointment).
- Include your name, date of birth, phone number and unique email consent number (this will be given on completion of this form) in the body of the email
- The content of the email should only be used for non-sensitive and non-urgent issues.
- The email message should not be time sensitive. Reiter Hill Johnson & Nevin endeavour to read and respond within 72 hours to any e-mail. However, we cannot guarantee that any email will be responded to within any particular time.
- Inform Reiter Hill Johnson & Nevin of changes in your email address.
